A C T

Of the Convention of E S T A T E S
 Of the Kingdom of SCOTLAND, &c.
 For a new and voluntar offer to His Majesty of seventy two thousand pounds monethly, for the space of twelve moneths.

At Edinburgh, the 23. day of January, 1667.

he Estates of the Kingdom of Scotland, being by His Majesty's Authority met together at this time, and taking to their consideration the great happiness this Kingdom doth enjoy under His Majesties Royal and Wise Government; With His Majesties Fatherly care and tenderneſſe for all the Concerns thereof, expreſt in every inſtance wherein His Majesty could have the leaſt opportunity to manifeſt the ſame: And eſpecially, in ſo reaſonably providing for their ſecurity, by the Forces raiſed this laſt Summer by His Royal Command, and maintained hitherto at His own Charge; of whole courage, fidelity and uſefulneſſe this Kingdom hath had a recent and clear demonstration. And withall, underſtanding that His Majesty is ſtill engaged in a juſt and neceſſary war, againſt ſo many powerful Enemies, who will probably endeavour the Invading of His Majesties Dominions: Do conceive themselves obliged in Conscience, Honour and Duty to provide all sutable remedies for defence of the Kingdom against all forraign Invasion, and other enemies whatsoever: And therefore the Convention of Estates for themselves, and as the Representatives of the Kingdom, doe revive and renew all the former engagements of the late Parliament, and meeting of the Estates, for the tender of their lives and fortunes, for the maintenance of His Majesties Royal Greatness, Authority and Government in Church and State, as it is now asserted and established by the Laws of the Kingdom. And in order to the entertainment of these Forces, which have been by His Majesties care so seasonably raised for defence of the Kingdom, or shall hereafter be raised by His Majesties Warrant; They do humbly beseech His Majesty may be graciously pleased to accept their unanimous, willing and chearful off-of a new supply of threescore and twelve thousands monethly, for the space of twelve Mo-neths, to commence from the first day of this c-rent Moneth of January. And the Estates do declare, that this supply is over and above the former supplies of four hundred and fourscore thousand pounds, granted by the late Parliament to His Majesty yearly, during His Lifetime: And the other supply of one hundred and thirty three thousand pounds, granted by the late Convention yearly, for the space of five years: And which new supply of threescore twelve thousand pounds Monethly, is ordered to be raised and paid by the severall Shires and Burghs of this Kingdom, according to the Valuations in the year of God, one thousand six hundred and sixty, and at the proportions underwritten, respective:

And for the Burghs, the Magistrates of the same for the time being, with power to them to choose Stent-Masters within their respective bounds. Which Commissioners are hereby ordained to accept and discharge their trust, as they will be answerable. And are at their acceptation thereof to take the Oaths of Allegiance, and for doing their duty faithfully in the matter of this Administration, and to sign the Declaration appointed by Act of Parliament to be signed by all persons in Publick Trust: And which Commissioners are hereby impowered to call for, and consider the Valuations of all Lands, Teinds, and other real Estate within their respective Shires and Burghs; And such as they shall find just and equal, that they

approve thereof, and appoint the same to be the rule for levying and raising this present supply. And where Lands, or Teinds, or other real Estate, did the time of former Valuations pertain to, and were in the hands of one person, and are since dismembred and disposed to several persons in parcels, so that the value of each parcel by it self cannot be known by the former Valuations, the Commissioners are hereby impowered in this and all other cases of that nature, or where they shall find any just cause by inequality to value of new again. As also, to value the Rents of all Archbishopricks, Bishopricks, and other Benefices, in so far as they exceed the ordinary value of modified Stipends: Provided alwayes that notwithstanding of the Valuation thereof within the Shire where there is any such Lands, Teinds, or other real Rent, the total and proportions above specified of the said Shires continue without any alteration; And that after the Valuation of the saids Benefices, a proportional abatement and ease effectuall to the proportion payable out of the saids Benefices be granted to the Heretors and others within the saids Shires, liable in payment of the said supply; and that from the first day of January instant. And where any Complaint or Representation shall be made of the Valuations by any persons concerned, that the Valuations are unequal, and that the Lands and other real Estate and Rents within the Shires or Burghs, are either over, or undervalued; The Commissioners are hereby impowered to hear and determine upon the saids Complaints, and upon trial, to rectifie all such Valuations as they shall find unequal. And they are to take course that all persons within the Shires and Burghs be equally and proportionally burdened: And in order hereunto, persons who conceive themselves grieved by former Valuations, are hereby appointed and warranted to make application to the Commissioners of the respective Shires and Burghs where their Estates ly, betwixt and the tenth day of April next: And the saids Commissioners, or Quorum thereof (which is hereby declared to be the major part) are ordained to proceed and determine thereupon, and to perfect and close their Valuations betwixt and the first day of June next. And their first meeting to be the second Wednesday of March, at the head Burgh of the Shire, and thereafter to adjourn their meeting to such diets and places as they shall think fit. It is alwayes provided, that this supply is for the first three Moneths, to be levied and paid according to the Valuations already made: But after that any of the saids Valuations shall be rectified, the supply is then to be paid according to the said rectification. And those persons whose Valuations shall be rectified, are in the first end of the next payment to have retention of what they shall have paid more then their just proportion in the former Moneths: And these persons who shall be found to have been undervalued, shall after the rectifying of the Valuations pay their proportions accordingly; and what they shall have paid less then their just proportions for the former Moneths, they shall also pay the same to the Collector, for relief of those that paid more then their proportions. It is alwayes understood, understood, that the total proportion upon the whole Shire shall remain intire, without any alteration or diminution. And further, the saids Commissioners are hereby impowered to call before them all persons concerned, and to direct Precepts, if need beis, against Parties and Witnesses; and to take Oaths, and use all other means of tryal, and to call for their assistance, information and advice, all such persons within the Shire or Burgh as they shall think fit, and if any shall refuse, the Commissioners are to represent the same to the Lords of His Majesties Privy Council, that they may be censured for their contempt. And the saids Commissioners are also hereby impowered to prescribe and set down such Rules and Orders within the respective Shires & Burghs, as maybe most effectual for the speedy and easie raising, leavying, and bringing in of the said supply, and ordering and doing every thing that may concern the same: And particularly, with power to them to choose their own Collectors for in-gathering of the said supply, for whom they are to be answerable, and to allow them and their Clerks such Fees, to be paid by the Shires and Burghs, as they shall think fit. And which Collectors and Clerks are to take the Oaths, and sign the Declaration foresaids. And the King's Majesty doth with advice and consent of His Estates, ordain all execution real and personal to pass at the instance of the Collector General, and the Collectors of the respective Shires and Burghs, against all persons deficient in payment of their proportions, as formerly: And also, impowers the Commissioners by their Officers, to Arrest, Poynd and Distrenzie the Goods, and Imprison the Persons of the Deficient, ay and wh: they make payment of just proportions and necessary expenses. And for the more ready and effectual payment, doth also impower the Commissioners and Collector General to Quarter upon Deficients, with this expresse proviso, that every Horse-man that shall be upon the place, shall have only free single Quarter allotted to them upon the persons Deficient, or be Quartered in Burghs or Villages, as the Commissioners shall appoint; and in that case to have fifteen shillings Scots a-day, from the time of presenting the Order to the Collector, and their stay upon the place, or eight shillings for their own Diet, and the Commissioners to cause provide every Horse with twenty pound weight of sufficient Straw, and three fourth-parts of Oats in the twenty four hours, if the Horse-men cannot conveniently provide themselves in the places where they ly: And each Foot-man to have four shillings Scots, or their Diet, as the Commissioners shall order; and the Commander of the Party, Horse or Foot, to have only double Quarter, or pay of an Horse-man or Foot-man as he serves. And declares, that in order to the Quarters, and matters relating to the in-bringing of this supply, any three of the Commissioners shall be a Quorum, and who are impowered to proportion upon, and raise from the Deficients the expence and charge of their deficiency. And the King's Majesty considering, That the Land and real Rent of the Kingdom, is lyable to His Majesty for this supplie, and that the said Land-Rent is under many other great burdens, and His Majesty being desirous to ease the same so far as is possible: Doth therefore, and for relief thereof, with advice of His Estates, Statute and Ordain, that all persons, Inhabitants within the several Shires, past sixteen years of Age (excepting Archbishops, Bishops, Noblemen, Barons, Heretors, Liferenters, and Beneficed Persons, bearing burden for their real Estates, and all Beneficed Persons, whose Benefices exceed not the ordinary Value of Modified Stipends; all Stipendary Ministers, School-Masters, Readers, Precentors and their Wives and Children: And also excepting the Colledge of Justice, and Members thereof; Officers of the Mint, and their Wives, Children and Servants) be Taxed, and pay in to the Heretors and others lyable for real Rent, under whom they live, and for their relief, the sums of Money after-mentioned, for this year, one thousand six hundred sixty seven: viz. Each Gentleman above the quality of a Tennant, the sum to be appointed by the Heretor, not exceeding six pounds Scots for himself, his Wife and Children; And each Tennant and other Inhabitant, above the quality of a Tradesman, Cotter, or Servant, for themselves and their Wives, any sum not exceeding four pounds Scots; And each Tradesman, Cotter, or Servant, any sum not exceeding the sum of twenty shillings Scots: And the Burghs Royal are for their relief hereby empowered to Tax all their Burgeses, constant Inhabitants, Tradesmen and Servants, conform to the above-mentioned Rules, excepting, as is before excepted, in relation to the Shires. And it is Ordained that the Heretors shall have the same Execution for raising of the saids sums, as for their Mails and Dues. And the Burghs, as for other Publick Dues payable to the saids Burghs. And further, The King's Majesty being willing to give all possible ease and encouragement to the Heretors and others lyable in payment of this supply out of the Land Rent, which will be impossible for them to pay, if they should likewise be for the time straitned for payment of their Debts: Therefore the King's Majesty doth hereby, with Advice and Consent of His Estates, suspend and discharge all personal Execution for payment of any Principal Sum above one thousand pounds Scots, due before the Date hereof by any persons having visible and real Estates, untill the Term of Whitsonday, one thousand six hundred sixty nine years: Excepting alwayes all such Sums and Bonds given for the same, as are due for the payment of His Majesties Annuity, Customes, Few-duties, Taxations, and other Dues belonging to His Majesty, which are no wayes comprehended under this Suspension; but all Execution is to pass for payment thereof as formerly, notwithstanding that the Bonds given for the same, grant the receipt of borrowed Money. And it is hereby declared, that the Suspension above-written is granted with this expresse condition, that the Debtors make payment of one years Annualrent yearly, within twenty days after the same is due, during the time foresaid, otherwise shall lose the benefit of this Suspension. It is also declared, that this Suspension is but prejudice of all Execution, real and personal (except Arrestments upon Rents) for bygone Annualrents, due at, and before Martimas last; And in
